

2017 Summer Schedule

Colorwheel Studio is offering summer workshops during five weeks of summer.

Each of the following classes meet on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays.

Either a morning or afternoon session is available each week.

The morning sessions meet from 10:00-12:00 and are for 5-9 year olds.

The afternoon sessions meet from 3:00-5:00 and are for 7-12 year olds.

The instructor is Kay Benesi and the cost for each session is $120.

When registering please specify which week and session you are interested in.

Week 1: June 20th, 21st, 22nd BOWL OF FRUIT:

Cezanne, Matisse, and Braque will be the inspiration for this class. Students will draw and paint a still-life on canvas, consisting of a bowl of fruit on a table top with various other objects surrounding the bowl. The third day of class they will do a small more abstract rendition of a still-life using chalk, India ink, and watercolor.

Week 2: July 4th, 5th, 6th SEATTLE SKYLINE:

Students will draw and paint a Seattle Skyline scene on a 15x30 inch canvas using acrylic paint. The third day they will do a black, white, and shades of grey downtown scene on paper with India ink.

Week 3: July 25th, 26th, 27th HORSES:

In this class students will learn to appreciate the beautiful physique of horses. They will draw and paint a horse on canvas with acrylic paint. The third day they will do more horse drawings on paper.

Week 4: August 8th, 9th, 10th CATS AND DOGS:

Students will draw and paint a portrait of both a cat and dog from the shoulders up, on good quality paper with acrylic paint. The third day they will draw and paint dogs and cats on paper with watercolors.

Week 5: August 22nd, 23rd, 24th SUMMER FLOWERS ON CANVAS:

In this class we will get our inspiration from a real bouquet of flowers, as well as from pictures of the flower paintings of Vincent Van Gogh, and other artists from the past. Students will draw and paint a beautiful vase full of flowers on canvas with acrylic paint. The third day they will do a long sunflower painting on rice paper, using India ink and watercolors.
